CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds, 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right to impose a reserve; and subject to the right to bid by, or on behalf of, the seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or blank leaves or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such lots as are not cleared, or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble servants,

Other Properties.

- 26 MARLBOROUGH (John, Duke of) A. L. 5 pp. 4to, Sep. 26, 1707, very interesting: "I desire then this letter may be burnt, and I shall submit the whole to Providence."—CRAGGS (James) A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, to Lord Godolphin, Sep. 10, 1703 (2)
- 27 CLARENDON (Henry Hyde, Earl of) A. L. s. 7 pp. folio, Ap. 8, 1689, to Dr. Tenison, Archbishop of Canterbury, a very important letter; from the Morrison collection
- 28 LOUIS XIV. A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Mar. 16, 1676, to King Charles II, with seals and silks, referring to the recent treaty between them
- * * * Holograph letters of Louis XIV, especially those of historical interest, are very rare. This shameful secret treaty between Charles and Louis bound England to enter into no engagements with any other power without the permission of France, the bribe being an annual subsidy from Louis of £100,000. It is known that Charles copied and sealed the treaty with his own hand; by this letter it appears that Louis XIV did the same.

- 29 JEFFERSON (Thomas) President of the United States, A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Washington, July 10, 1803, to the Earl of Buchan, with a long endorsement by Lord Buchan, an interesting and important letter
- 30 SHARP (James) Archbishop of St. Andrews, A. L. s. 1 p. folio, Edinburgh, Feby. 1661; also a long postscript on a separate sheet attached, to the Earl of Lauderdale, a very important letter, in finest condition
- 31 HENRIETTA MARIA (Queen) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to [1629], to Cardinal Richelieu, sending the Abbé Montagu to him on some secret mission; mentions her husband and her brother Louis XIII, with seals intact, portrait
- * * A fine early letter; the signature is without the final R. The seal is very unusual, being the crowned monogram C.H.M. (Charles and Henrietta Maria). The Queen invariably used an armorial seal.
- 32 NEY (Marshal) Doc. s. 1 p. 4to, 12 Thermidor, An 12.—MOORE (Sir John) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Ap. 18, 1805, to Brigade-Major Moore (2)
- 33 GORDON (General C. E.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, with envelope and Chinese seal, to Prince Kung; A. L. s. as Governor General of the Sudan, 1 p. folio, Suez, Feb. 19, 1877; two A. L. s. Feb. 18 and 20, 1877; and two L. s. (6)
- 34 CANNING (George) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, Jan. 18, 1826, to the Prince de Polignac; A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, May 17, 1816, to the Count de Tourain; and three other A. L. s. (5)
- 35 SCOTT (Sir Walter) ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT of part of "Count Robert of Paris," all that is known to be extant; written in 1831, when his health had failed. Scott employed Willie Laidlaw and his wife as his amanuenses. A portion only of this MS. is in Scott's handwriting, the larger portion being in that of Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw
- * * One of the "Caddell" MSS., bound in with Caddell's crest and the following note:
- This volume contains part of the manuscript of Count Robert of Paris, but a small portion in the handwriting of Sir Walter Scott, the larger portion in that of Mrs. Wm. Laidlaw his friend and amanuensis. (Signed) ROB. CADDELL 1834.
- The whole of this important MS. is in remarkably fine preservation.
- 36 HOGG (James) "The Ettrick Shepherd," Original Manuscript of "The Adventures of Colonel Peter Aston," 32 pp. 4to, 16 ll. on both sides, interleaved with blank paper, full brown levant morocco, gilt top, lettered on front cover, 1825
- 37 NELSON (Lord) A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, Naples, 9 Oct. 1798, to Earl Spencer, regretting that it has taken three weeks to refit the Fleet:
- We go to sea victualled for six months, and Naples sees this

- His virtue and courage have sustained him, but he is in despair at learning that his poor sister has just been sent for by the police. The Hébertists are more audacious than the Brissotins. The latter issued warrants against his relations but did not dare to execute them. . . . The former have abused their position . . . unless he receives reassuring news to-morrow his friends will learn that it is possible to die of chagrin and despair.
- 63 LORRAINE (Ducs de). CHARLES II (1543-1608) Charter signed Charles, double folio, vellum, 1560, with fine great seal. — HENRI II, L. s. and subscribed, 1 p. large folio, 1620, to his sister the Grand Duchess of Tuscany. — NICOLAS (1609-1670) L. s. - 65 HENRI III, Important L. s. 1 p. folio, 1577, to M. de Matignon, gouverneur de la Basse Normandie, asking him to make the Edict of Beaulieu respected:
- He should give letters of safe conduct "à ceux de mes subjects qui sont de l'opinion nouvelle, lesquels se voudront contenir en repos en leurs maisons, sans entreprendre aucune chose au prejudice de mon service, ni faire aucun exercice de leur dite opinion, à la charge aussi de n'estre aucunement recherchez en leurs consciences."

- 66 COOK (Captn. James) A. L. s. $\frac{3}{4}$ p. 4to, 1768, with address, to the Comm^{rs}. of the Navy re-indenting for provisions for H.M. Bark "Endeavour"
- 67 MARCIN (Marshal) 1656-1706, A. L. s. $6\frac{1}{4}$ pp. 4to, to the Marquis de Torcy, Barcelona, 2 octobre, 1701, respecting the desire of Philip V to go into Italy
- 68 MATIGNON (C. A. de Goyon, Cte. de) Marshal of France, served with James II in Ireland, directed the siege of Londonderry, and commanded the troops to help the landing of the Old Pretender in Scotland, A. L. s. Dunkerque, 7 Apl. 1708, 3 pp. 4to, to a prince; historical letter in which he regrets that the measures concerted with the King of England proved abortive, and both had to return to Dunkerque [The fleet was scattered by tempests and pursued by Adml. Byng and retired to Dunkerque], very rare
- 69 THE DIARY OF THE REV. RALPH JOSSELYN (1616-1683), THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, written in a close but very fine and clear hand on about 370 pp. each 8 by 6 in. bound in old calf, with the Royal arms stamped on both covers, and the initials G. K. on the sides of the shields
- * * * The Rev. Ralph Josselin was Vicar of Earl's Colne from March, 1640, till his death in 1683. Of strong Puritan tendencies he joined the Parliamentary party during the Civil War, for some time acting as chaplain to one of the regiments raised by the Eastern Association, and being several times under fire. He, however, regretted the King's death and was evidently reconciled to the return of Charles II. After the Restoration he stood out against wearing the surplice, apparently till 1680; but under May 17th of that year he notes: "Rid to court; the matter is the surplice which I see no sin to use, and shall endeavour to live as quietly as may be to the end of my race." He was a learned and intelligent man, kind-hearted if somewhat self-seeking, and his diary furnishes us with an extraordinarily vivid picture of the stirring times in which he lived. The diary was partly printed by the Historical Society in 1908 (forming vol. XV, third series), and a complete typed transcript accompanies the manuscript.

- 74 MÈRYON (Charles) Famous Etcher, A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, to Monsr. Lesuq, 13 Juillet, '64, in which he asks for 50 francs on account, as he is short of money, for the plate which he has commissioned. He has nearly finished the drawing and hopes to begin the plate shortly. He has not yet completed the "Lycée Napoléon," etc. He speaks of the heat and asks whether Lesuq regrets not having taken his advice [on the subject of cold baths, probably]
- 75 LAFAYETTE (G. M. Marquis de) L. s. 1 p. 4to, 22 Aoust, 1789, to the Marquis de Mesmon declining his offer of service, as all the nominations for posts are in the power of the Districts and he does not care to oppose their views in that respect

The Property of a Lady.

- 97 BROWNING (Robert) A. L. s. 3 full pp. imp. 8vo, Villers sur Mer, Oct. 15, '75, to Mrs. Townshend Mayer:
 I do not possess a single letter of Mr. Horne's to my wife: she certainly destroyed that as almost every other correspondence in her power. She had the greatest repugnance to her own familiar writing being printed, and I am very doubtful as to the propriety of my own permission that, in this one instance, her wishes should seem to have been disregarded—although, on consideration of the very peculiar circumstances of the case, I judged that in the spirit of self-sacrifice which was pre-eminent in her—she would have submitted to a solitary violation of the rule which I am not likely to break again....
- 98 BROWNING (R.) A. L. s. 3 full pp. 8vo, 19, Warwick Crescent, Oct. 30, '75, to the same, a characteristic letter with reference to the publication of the letters by Horne, and concluding:
 My wife had a very sincere regard for Horne—and the admiration for his genius.... and I dare not pretend to blot out—so to speak—any sort of demonstration she chose to make before her life was connected with mine.
- 99 BROWNING (R.) A. L. s. 3½ pp. 8vo, 19, Warwick Crescent, W. Nov. 20, '68, sending a photograph, excusing himself for delay, etc.:
 But at some three days end came a horrible cold caught by sleeping inadvertently with a window wide open at my head, with a door as wide open to correspond and make the thoroughfare of all the demons of the night unimpeded....
- 100 BROWNING (R.) A. L. s. 3½ pp. 8vo, Nov. 17, '68, to Mrs. Townshend Mayer, an extremely interesting letter re the Leigh Hunt memorial and bust:
 I was sure there would be difficulties in the way of getting the merest niche in the Abbey. Is it so very desirable? I think the original plan the better one, had you even the latitude of choice. I do not understand any unpleasant feeling of "unrest" conveyed by the proposed station of a bust over a tomb. I hope that if in one sense we rest after death—in another we work harder than ever: and I am sure that Leigh Hunt would have liked the notion—of still looking on and benefiting those about him—else how love his fellow men? As for popular appreciation it is the veriest of bubbles—and on the whole, except in rare cases, a man is safer without it....
- 101 BROWNING (R.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Nov. 18, '69; and others of Leslie Stephen, Hy. Kingsley, and Charles and Mary Cowden Clark (2) (5)
- 102 TENNYSON (Lord) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Sep. 24, 1869, regretting his inability to comply with the request of the Leigh Hunt Memorial Committee:
 All the more that so much is I feel due to the memory of Leigh Hunt.

- 103 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Apl. 7, 1870, to F. S. R. Townshend Mayer; and others of F. Locker, J. Forster and Lord Lytton (3); and an anonymous contemporary Poem on Ch. Lamb's "Rosamund Gray" (7)
- 104 ROSSETTI (W. M.) Two A. L. s. 7 pp. 8vo, 14 Dec./69, etc. one referring at length to his edition of Shelley, the other to the Leigh Hunt memorial.—SHELLEY (Mary) Two A. L. s. 6 pp. 12mo, to Leigh Hunt, interesting, referring to Prometheus unbound, etc.; and others of Anne Thackeray, Lord Russell, B. W. Procter, Edwin Arnold, W. S. Lander, Thos. Hughes, Rd. Owen, and others, an interesting collection
a parcel
- 105 HUNT (Leigh) An important Collection of Twenty-two A. L. s. over 55 pp. 4to and 8vo, to J. W. Dalby, Mch. 5, 1834, to Apl. 21, 1859, interesting friendly letters on literary topics and referring to his works, one letter written from Chelsea :
 . . . I defy you to live in a less cottage than I have done; yet it had held Shelley and Keats and half-a-dozen other friends in it, all at once; and they have made worlds of their own within the rooms. Keats' "Sleep and Poetry" is a description of a parlour that was mine, no bigger than an old mansion's closet . . .
 Another refers to "My friend Carlyle, who lives in the street next to me." Another gives a humorous anecdote of Foote. Yet another, Aug. 23 (1844): (22)
 I have got a little windfall (say rather a heaven-fall, one of the wishes of my beloved friend Shelley) of £120 a year, kindly accorded to me by my young friend his son; and it would have been more, had the condition of the estates been more favourable. Dear S., thank God, knew that I would have stood by him in any trouble, and that I did. But he never made calculations of such things between us . . .
- 106 KEATS (John) Auto. MS. 1 p. 4to, signed and dated March, 1815. "On a Leander which Miss Reynolds, my kind friend, gave me," consisting of 14 lines, with erasures and corrections, beginning :
 Come hither all sweet maidens, soberly,
 Down looking—aye, and with a chastened light,
 Hid in the fringes of your eyelids white,
 And meekly let your fair hands joined be. . .

The Property of R. Richardson, Esq.

The Firs, Tavistock.

- 107 SCOTT (Sir Walter) A long and interesting A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, with a P.S. of 3 pp. 4to, to John Richardson, sympathetically referring to Dr. Baillie's death, expressing sorrow for Joanna, and quoting some lines of Johnson's; the letter goes into family matters at some length, describing Abbotsford and its rooms, etc., and concludes with a humorous reference to a Bannatyne Club meeting; the P.S. relates entirely to some dispute over a legacy of £30,000

- 108 SCOTT (Sir W.) A. L. 4 pp. 4to, to the same, apparently incomplete :

I had the extreme satisfaction to learn by a former brief favour of yours, that you had been so good as to undertake the care of my children's interest in the succession of their maternal uncle. . . .

Scott then strongly criticises the proposed marriage of his brother-in-law's widow (Mrs. Carpenter), and goes fully into the legal position of the family, etc.

- 109 SCOTT (Sir W.) A. L. s. 2 full pp. 4to, entirely on family matters ; and A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, both to the same (2)

- 110 SCOTT (Sir W.) An interesting A. L. (1819), 1½ pp. 4to, to the same :

. . . I enclose you a sketch of my pedigree, which is just, as someone says of a cork jacket, good enough to swim with if one can swim without it. The advocate tells me that I ought to take out my grant of arms in Scotland, both because it is much cheaper and more easily proved by reference to those of my family who stand already matriculated, and also to our records, whereas it may be difficult to find proof of the same facts in Scotland. . . . Your account of the fees is so moderate that I am much surprized and very agreeably. I thought they ran nearer to £1,200. . . . For the sword, I saw a noble Cameronian basket hilted broadsword, once wielded by a champion of the Covenant in former days. . . . It was an Andrea Ferrara, little differing in fashion from the common Highland broadsword. . . .

ACCOMPANYING THIS LETTER IS THE PEDIGREE IN SCOTT'S WRITING, ON 2 pp. 4to, SHOWING HIS CLAIMS TO THE ARMS OF HARDEN (2)

- 111 SCOTT (Sir W.) A. L. s. 1½ pp. 4to, Edin. 7th Feb. 1810, to the same, with reference to a claim for £1,280, of which the Scottish Judicature has only allowed him £1,100, etc.

- 112 SCOTT (Sir W.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, to the same :

Our magnificent scheme is clip'd in the wings. I have got some business on my hands on Saturday of a nature which will not admit of my leaving town that day. . . . I send you the patent for the arms. It occurs to me that the arms should be blue and yellow, yet they are coloured red and white. . . .

Almost every tender-hearted woman has some crypt, some cache, where she hides away a letter or two, a faded leaf, a keepsake, perhaps from some friend whom she hardly names to herself, etc.

and others of R. Doyle, G. Whyte Melville, T. Moore, Hannah More, etc. (10)

- 115 NELSON (Lord) Early A. L. s. "Horatio Nelson," 2 pp. 8vo, July 7, 1794, to Lord Hood, an interesting letter describing an engagement
- 116 BRIDPORT (Admiral Lord) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Royal George, Sept. 13, 1798.—HOWE (Lord) Two A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Admiralty, 4 Nov. 1788, etc.—DUNDAS (Lt. Gen. D.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, San Fiorenzo, Feb. 28, '94.—RODNEY (Sir George) L. s. 2 pp. folio, 2 March, 1781.—HAMILTON (Sir Wm.) A. L. s. 2 pp. folio, Sep. 16, 1793; and other Letters, etc. of naval interest, chiefly addressed to Lord Hood a parcel
- 117 STUART (Gen. Sir Chas.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, 15 June, 1794: "I expect Capt. Nelson with impatience, and upon his arrival will proceed for Calvi..."—PITT (Wm. the Younger) Two A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, Admiralty, May, 1793, and July, 1794, interesting letters on naval matters (3)
- 118 NELSON (Lord) A. L. s. $\frac{1}{2}$ p. 4to, Medusa, Aug. 18, 1801, to Capt. Somerville:
 25 sail got from Dunkirk to Calais this morning, do not let them pass to Bologne, can Calais be bombarded with a fair prospect of destroying these vessels, etc. ?
- 119 NELSON (Lord) AN IMPORTANT A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, to Abbé Campbell, Victory, Oct. 9, 1805 (preserved in a glass frame)
 Many thanks for your kind letter, which unfortunately did not find me at Merton, but off Cadiz, waiting these fellows as a cat would a mouse. I was just 25 days from the Victory, and expected to have laid my wearied loins quiet for the winter, but I ought, perhaps, to be proud of the general call which was made me to go forth. . . . I have had very kind letters from both the good King and Queen. . . . I have letters from Dear Lady Hamilton, of Sept. 20th, I am sure you will forgive her writing, when you consider all suffered upon my tour to the Wt. Indies. . . . My brother hopes I shall meet the enemy's fleet, that somehow or other he may be a lord.
- 120 WORDSWORTH (Wm.) Nine A. L. s. about 26 pp. folio, 4to and 8vo (some slightly imperfect), Oct. 27, 1827, etc. to his daughter Dora (afterwards Mrs. Quillinan), with transcripts
 * * * Affectionate letters, full of interesting news and fatherly advice. In one he refers to his sonnets, in another to Cowper, in another to her intended marriage with Quillinan, etc.
- 121 WORDSWORTH (W.) Eleven A. L. s. about 30 pp. 4to and 8vo, to Edward Quillinan, 27 May, 1822, etc. with transcripts
 * * * An equally interesting family series, with frequent references to his work and daughter; mentions Southey and others.
- 122 SHELLEY (Mary) AN EXTREMELY IMPORTANT COLLECTION OF FIFTY A. L. s. (chiefly with initials), of over 120 pp. 8vo, with envelopes, 1844-1849, to Miss Clairmont, practically every letter is of great interest and refers mostly to family and money matters; frequent references are made to Percy, "who gets lazier every day and won't write to anyone," etc. Also going fully into the matter of buying back some letters in the possession of a man (Gatterchi):

With my letters in his possession he can destroy me. . . . O happy are you, dear Claire, not to be devoured by humiliating and remorseful thoughts. I have only myself to blame—for that there are bad people in the world I always knew, and to treat one of the worst as if he were an angel, was a piece of folly that nothing can excuse—my conduct was so totally devoid of common sense. I often had as it were flashes of light across my self-imposed darkness, but would not look, but shrouded myself voluntarily again in obscurity. I banish these thoughts all I can for they madden me. . . .

Accompanying this lot are copies of three long letters to Mary from P. B. Shelley, possibly in the former's writing.

- 123 MORLAND (G.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Feb. 26, '91, referring to one of his pictures and the "best size for landscapes."—COSWAY (Maria) A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, 18 March, 1824, to Miss Wesley (2)

- 133 DICKENS (Charles) A very EARLY AND RARE A. L. s. $3\frac{1}{2}$ pp. 4to (small piece in corner missing), Bentinck St., Wednesday, Sept. 3rd (n. y.), to F. Carr Beard, a humorous letter :
- . . . how many birds have you killed—have you been to the something and platter, and astonished the Natives—what have you done—have you had a fall of any kind, equestrian or otherwise—have you fallen in love with any lady, or fallen out with any gentleman? . . . I have taken a wine glass of “The mixture as before” twice a day varying the amusement with an occasional pill. I shudder when I think of that mixture . . . it really requires no slight mental exertion to enable me to retain my breakfast . . . I am writing this in the front drawing room, in a great fidget—There is a coach office carrier delivering a Hamper over the way, evidently by mistake—it must be for us: it contains game I see—they’re opening the door—there’s a parley—they’re going to send him over here—no; damn it; they have paid him,—the street door is shut, and he has driven off . . .

- 199 BURNS (Robert) A FINE A. L. s. 3 pp. folio, Wedn : eve : n. y. addressed to Mr. J. Johnson, Engraver :

Now to the subject of your songs. The Song to Ginglan Geordie if my memory serves me right is one of Dr. Blacklock's. We all knew the Doctor's merit, but his songs in general were very silly. I enclose you one to the tune which has much more merit & I beg you will insert it.

"Ken ye what Meg o' the Mill has gotten." I send you the old words—Any fiddler will give you the tune if you ask for it by the name of "Jacky Hume's lament."

Burns then gives comments on "Güde Ale comes and Güde Ale goes" "Lay thy loof in mine Lassie" "My Lady's gown and gait upon't" "The Lochmaben Harper" ("I fear I shall never recover, and it is a famous old song") :

Pray is not the song mentioned in the list No. 55 under the title of "Gloomy December" the same with "Once mair I hail thee thou Gloomy Deer," which you say is amongst the lost?

"Peggy in Devotion" is surely English. Tell Clarke from me on no account to insert an English song in this volume.

Mention is also made of "The Rock and the wee pickle tow," "O Bonie Jean where hast thou been, Father and Mother seeking thee, etc." "Go from my window," "Queen Mary's Lament" ; and others

* * * AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING LETTER to James Johnson projector of the "Scots Musical Museum, 1787-1803," to which Burns contributed songs. This letter apparently gives detailed instructions as to which should be published and queries others which have been lost.

- 200 BURNS (R.) AUTO. MSS. on 4 pp. 4to :

 . . . But I am going to write a little Christmas Book—and have not begun it—and should do nothing in your old hall I know—and must hermetically seal myself up, in my own rooms here in the mornings—and wonder about the sheets full of faces, at night.
 I feel a sort of Roman dignity—a lofty constance—in writing this, and feel how very much it goes against the grain to do it . . . I say nothing, but, frowning very much, proceed at once to the flourish belonging to my signature . . .

- 220 LINCOLN (Abraham) AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING AUTO. MS.
1½ pp. folio, being a draft made for one of his famous speeches:

... Yet I have never failed—do not now fail—to remember that in the republican cause there is a higher aim than that of mere office—I have not allowed myself to forget that the abolition of the slave trade by Great Britain was agitated a hundred years before it was a final success; that the measure had its open fire-eating opponents; its stealthy “dont-care” opponents; its dollar and cent opponents; its inferior race opponents; its negro-equality opponents and its religious and good order opponents; that all these opponents got offices and their adversaries got none—But I have also remembered that though they blazed like tallow Candles for a century, at last they flickered in the socket, died out, stank in the dark for a brief season, and were remembered no more even by the smell. . . I am proud in my passing speck of time to contribute an humble mite to that glorious consummation which my own poor eyes may not last to see.

Accompanying the MS. is an A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, from Lincoln’s son, Robert T. Lincoln, dated 17 Sept. 1892, describing it as:

The MS. is a note made in preparing for one of the speeches in the Joint-Debate Campaign between Mr. Douglas and my father in 1858. The Campaign was for a seat in the United States Senate, and the political issue was the extension of the system of Slavery to the free Territories of our Country. My father could little imagine when writing that in less than five years a Proclamation under his own signature would not only end all question of the extension of Slavery to the free Territories of the United States, but would free all the slaves in all the States.
